The Security Agent, as the joint and several creditor with each holder of the Bonds under the terms and conditions, may and shall request from the Issuer, for the benefit of the holders of the Bonds, the payment of any amount to be paid by the Issuer to any holder of the Bonds in respect of the Issuer's obligation arising from the Bonds.

The Security Agent is not obliged to pay interest on any cash amounts held by it for the holders of the Bonds.

Termination of the office of the Security Agent

If the Security Agent is terminated without a legal successor, resigns as security agent, is not able to perform its ordinary business activities (due to the withdrawal of the relevant business licenses, insolvency proceedings, etc.) or grossly violates the duties when performing the office of security agent, the Issuer shall without undue delay appoint another person having the licence of the securities trader to act as security agent in connection with the Bonds who may, under a license issued by the competent authority, perform the office and render services provided by the Security Agent in connection with the Bonds (the "New Security Agent"). However, this change shall not affect the position or interests of the holders of the Bonds. To this end, the Issuer shall, without delay, then enter into new security documents with the New Security Agent that shall in all material respects correspond to the original security documents, and the current Security Agent shall provide all its co-operation in connection with the replacement of the Security Agent. In the event of any other early termination of the office of the Security Agent, the potential termination of the office of the Security Agent shall not become effective until the New Security Agent in respect of the Bonds is appointed, who will fully take over the rights and obligations of the current Security Agent resulting to it from the Intercreditor Agreement, the Pledge Agreement, the terms and conditions, the agency agreement, and the prospectus, including the entering into of a new Pledge Agreement so that, at the latest at the moment of the change of the Security Agent, the Pledge is validly created for the benefit of the New Security Agent. The Issuer shall notify the holders of the Bonds of the change of the Security Agent without undue delay in accordance with clause 4.4.23 of the prospectus.

The Issuer will maintain the Pledge in full until the repayment of all the Issuer's obligations arising from the Bonds.

The Security Agent shall not be liable to the holders of the Bonds for the fact that the Pledge has not been validly created or has not become effective or that it has performed or has not performed any action in respect of the Pledge Agreement except as a result of gross negligence or wilful misconduct of the Security Agent.

Enforcement of the Issuer's obligations through the Security Agent:

The Security Agent, as the joint and several creditor with each of the holders of the Bonds under the terms and conditions, may request that the Issuer pay, for the benefit of the holders of the Bonds, any due amount the Issuer is required to pay to any holder of the Bonds in connection with the Issuer's obligation arising from the Bonds, including its recovery through the enforcement of the Pledge (that is created for the name of the Security Agent). For this reason, all holders of the Bonds shall exercise their rights under the Bonds that could in any way threaten the existence or quality of the Pledge (including the individual exercise, enforcement, and satisfaction of any monetary claims in respect of the Bonds vis-à-vis the Issuer by the enforcement of the Pledge) only in cooperation with the Security Agent and through the Security Agent.

Procedure by the Security Agent when enforcing the Pledge:

Once any receivable secured by the Pledge has remained unpaid (in whole or in part) when due, the Pledge shall become enforceable and the Security Agent may begin with the enforcement of the Pledge under the conditions set out in the Pledge Agreement in one of the following ways: (i) by collecting the pledged receivables and applying the collected amounts; (ii) by direct sale of the pledged receivables; (iii) by the sale of the pledged receivables in the form of a public tender pursuant to Section 281 et seq. of Act No. 513/1991 Coll., the Commercial Code, as amended; or (iv) by the sale of the pledged receivables at a voluntary auction under Act No. 527/2002 Coll., as amended.

The Security Agent shall have the right to take over all proceeds of the sale of the pledged claims or the right to enforce the Pledge in another manner permitted by the Pledge Agreement and use it to repay all secured claims due at that time in the following order:

- (i) first, for payment of all costs and expenses of the Security Agent (including, without limitation, the remuneration of legal and other professional advisers), fees and taxes (including VAT) incurred by the Security Agent in connection with the enforcement of the Pledge; and
- (ii) secondly, in the order determined under clause 3.4 (Partial Payments) of the Intercreditor Agreement,

Within 30 days of the completion of the sale of the pledged claims, the Security Agent shall provide the Issuer with a written report describing the individual steps of the sale process, the amount of the sale proceeds, the amount of the costs incurred in connection with the enforcement of the Pledge, and information about the distribution of the sale proceeds.
